

A METEOROLOGICAL MIRACLE////

It began to rain, when evangelist Schott reached Vijayawada, India, on September 10th. That was a great blessing for many people who had been praying for rain. The monsoon rain had delayed. Good for the farmers, who were in critical need of the delayed rain – however, bad for an open-air Gospel meeting. The first night of the Gospel meeting was on a Friday. The ground of the field was still very wet, but at least it did not rain – not yet!

By the time evangelist Schott began to preach, it got very windy. Soon after, it began to rain heavily. Daniel quickly changed his message. He preached a very short Gospel message! The Word of God was still powerful! What counts is not the length of a message, but the authority of the Lord alone. The people kept listening, despite the rain. When the call for salvation was made, many raised their hands and repeated the prayer of salvation. And – who would have thought it – the Lord healed many people in the rain and quickly, this evening.

Evangelist Schott had barely finished the last prayer, as the lights went out suddenly, and it became dark. The power generator went off due to wetness. What an event. A defeat? – No, in no case! This time it did not turn out the proverbial way. Quite contrary: Fast and quickly wins the race.

The rain drove the pastors to prayer and fasting. The GEN prayer team prayed in Germany. On the second day a few drops of rain fell, but the Gospel meeting could continue. Although the weather forecast predicted heavy rains, and it actually did rain in the surrounding areas, our location was spared. That was a huge meteorological miracle! But that was not all. Many more miracles were to happen that weekend, as the following testimonies will show.

HARVESTING STRATEGICALLY AND EFFICIENTLY

My youngest son Tim and I went on a cycling trip in the countryside, in late summer. We stopped once again at the 'perfect' spot for a short break. That turned out to be a good decision and a lucky timing. We had opportunity to witness a rather extraordinary happening. It was during the time of canola harvest. The field in front of us had been harvested already. However, to our surprise, a combine harvester was moving across the field with a rather high speed. As it came closer, I could hardly believe it: The farmer was actually busy harvesting some canola with lots of effort, although the field had been mown already. A bizarre scenario!

Unfortunately, oftentimes things are done in a similar way in the Kingdom of God. If at all Christians evangelize, they oftentimes try to harvest with lots of effort, where people have already heard the Gospel multiple times. That is neither clever nor efficient. One might object that the harvest of souls is different from the canola harvest. Of course it is! A soul has eternal worth, and any effort to save a soul is worthwhile. True! However, if one considers the fact that at the same time there are ripe harvest fields elsewhere, and people are waiting to be hear the Gospel for the first time – then things look completely different.

I'm asking myself, why so many resources are being squandered, in the Christian sector. Oftentimes, people are being evangelized aimlessly – people who reject the Gospel repeatedly. In contrast, however, there are countries that are open to the Gospel, but receive little attention.

It gets worse: Evangelism as such is often neither on the radar nor part of the budget, of many Christian institutions. Instead, much effort is put into entertaining believers with ever new events. Once again, I see the combine harvester speeding across an empty field.

Jesus and his disciples never imposed the Gospel on people. They proclaimed the Gospel. Whenever Apostle Paul was finished with a region, he was looking for the next harvest field (Rom 15:23). Did all people get saved? – No, but they had been offered salvation. Paul worked strategically and used his resources efficiently.

I am passionate about the masses of people, who need to hear the Gospel! – Strategically and efficiently!

Thank you for your support!

GOD ALSO WORKS IN EUROPE////

The Lord who works in Asia and Africa proofs to be the same in Europe, if people are open for His moves.

Time and time again, evangelist Schott calls Christians and non-Christians to repentance in various meetings. Prayers for healing and impartation of the power of the Holy Spirit follow. Christians are being challenged to get up and to fulfil their mission in this world. As a result churches are revitalized. Sanctified and Spirit-filled Christians will change the world!

A LASTING GOSPEL////

Miracles cannot be separated from the Gospel. They are not just an accompaniment, but a vital part of the Gospel. It has been the same experience for the people at the Gospel meetings in India. Short- and long-term illnesses were healed!

Here some testimonies. Jesus healed the man in the picture at the top left. He was able to move his hand again, after six month. A woman got healed, who due to her back problems could not walk. Thank you Jesus! The Lord also healed the paralyzed hand of another woman.

Sometimes evangelists are charged of not producing lasting miracles. That lacks any kind of logic, since it is God who heals. But people who do not believe in healing, use such arguments to justify their unbelief. Thank goodness, the Lord is not impressed by such foolish arguments.

Our coordinator in India reported that a boy with curved limbs had been healed at our Gospel meeting in March and was now able to run (see picture below left).

Evangelist Schott comments:

"I'm happy for the boy! I still remember the situation, when the mother just laid the child on the platform. Laying my hands on the child, I prayed a short prayer. Everything went very quickly. Nothing obvious happened. But God saw the faith of the mother! The boy was healed! It was not until my second visit when I found out about it. Jesus deserves all the glory!"

MIRACLES CANNOT BE SEPARATED FROM THE GOSPEL. THEY ARE NOT JUST AN ACCOMPANIMENT, BUT A VITAL PART OF THE GOSPEL.

God's actions are not always visible right away. A woman, who was healed of cancer in the Gospel meeting in March, was also still healed, as Daniel revisited the area in September. Lasting miracles! Thank you Jesus!

LONDON: HEALINGS OF LONG-TERM ILLNESSES ////

It is not easy to categorize miracles. Which of them are greater than others? Nevertheless, it is quite impressive when the Lord heals people who are suffering of long-term illnesses.

As evangelist Schott was ministering in a church in London, the Lord did it again. Besides God's move causing repentance, healings of various kinds happened. The Lord healed a lady who had had problems with her right hand for seven years. Although she could close her hand, sometimes she could not open it again.

A man was healed, who had suffered of pain in his ankle for 27 years. Although he had been healed already on Friday, he waited with his testimony till Sunday. He could not really believe it and wanted to be sure that he was truly healed. The seemingly impossible is possible with God!

BANGS NEAR NAPLES!!!!

It was a blessed time in Italy. The tent evangelisation with evangelist Schott took place near Naples, in a notorious mafia town. In the course of the meetings it became clear that the organizers had been anticipating disturbances. What else would one expect in an area, where violent crimes and family feuds are part of everyday life. But the Gospel meetings in the evenings went surprisingly smooth – not least an indication of the respect for the things of God.

One night several bangs were heard. The interpreter explained that in such areas bangers are used to announce the arrival of a new delivery of drugs. Daniel comments:

"It must have banged similarly loud in the spirit, for the Gospel is the power of God! In the original Greek text the word dynamis is used. The word dynamite is derived from the same Greek word. Whenever the Gospel is preached, the 'dynamite of God' is detonating! A great explosion!"

This night something much better than drugs had arrived – the glorious presence of the Lord! Wherever the Holy spirit works, demonic powers must flee. The Holy Spirit worked salvations and healings of various kinds. The healing of an almost blind woman was particularly impressive. A man received healing for his right eye, through a word of knowledge that evangelist Schott received from the Lord. Thank you Jesus!
